

Strategic Thinking

Managing Uncertainty and Anticipating the Unexpected

Date	Venue	Fees
22 - 26 Jul 2019	London	$5,950

Training Course Overview

Do you struggle to spend the time you want to on strategic management for because of the pace of change and pressure to 'get the job done'? Many managers today say they know that taking time out to think and plan strategically is really important but don't know how to develop strategy in the face of constant external change and the rise of new working methods such as agile. Successful managers who progress to become leaders in their field are able to balance time spent working IN the organization with time working ON it.

This highly practical Anderson training course will enable you to look ahead and think strategically about the challenges and opportunities ahead. The future is unknown, but that makes planning even more necessary. By combining powerful analysis methods with proven thinking tools, you can help your organization to get better at dealing with today's world of volatility, uncertainty, complexity and ambiguity.
