

Developing the 'Character' of a Leader

Leading by Example, Setting the Standard to Follow

► Training Details

Online Training Course Overview

This motivational personal development online training course is designed for leaders and managers who are willing to look into some of the deeper and less talked about elements of leadership. We will examine the subject of 'Character' and discover how our success as leaders ultimately depends on our own character. Many leaders have fallen from grace or have not reached the heights and successes they deserve due to a lack of character or flaws within their character. As we delve deep into this subject you will feel challenged and inspired to begin to work on your personal character, and as you do, the results will transform the way others see you as a leader.
